Mr. R. P. Burr and His Bride at Hot Springs

Tratt and Miss Pratt to Take the Cure.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD

ter of Mr. J. M. Hewlett. Mr. Robert Stow Bradley and Miss eric A. Juilliard Foundation. and Miss Bradley will take the cure.

Miss Beatrice Gordon Pratt. Mrs. Fran-

The Rev. James Avery Norris and Mrs. Norris of Hot Springs announced the engagement of their daughter Miss the engagement of their daughter Miss Helen Avery Norris, to Mr. A. Carlton McKenny of Richmond. Mrs. Norris and her daughter are at present in New York. Mrs. Frederic Pearson has returned to New York, Mrs. Henry C. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Janney to Phila-delphia, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Reynolds Hitt to Washington and Mrs. Allan Mac-sherry to Baltimore.

MISS MARION TIPPLE A BRIDE. Ensign Higgins Weds Daughter of

Dr. B. M. Tipple of Rome. Announcement was made yesterday of the marriage of Miss Marion Tipple. daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bertraud M. Tipple, of Rome, Italy, to Ensign Raynd Lawrence Higgins, at the home of her uncle, Mr. Ezra Squier Tipple Drew Forest, Madison, N. J., on last Sturday evening. Miss Elizabeth Tipple, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was Ensign J. G. Shoemaker. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by her uncle.

Ensign and Mrs. Higgins will live in New London Conn. during his course.

New London, Conn., during his course of study at the submarine base. He was graduated from the Naval Academy at

Miss Mildred Liebman, daughter of Mr. nd Mrs. Rudolph Liebman of Dallas. Tex., and Mr. Frederick Francis Green-

Prof. Hanson Wins Place in American Academy at Rome

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Bache He Is Made a Fellow in Musical Composition-Appointed for Three Years.

Hor Speines, Va., Nov. 14.-Mr. and from the offices of the American Acad-Mrs. Robert Page Burr, who were mar- cmy in Rome, 101 Park avenue, of the ried in New York last Saturday, arrived appointment by the Academy of Prof. at the Homestead to-day to remain Howard Harold Hanson, dean of the until the Thanksgiving holidays. The Conservatory of Music of the College of bride was Miss Laurence Hewlett, daugh- the Pacific, at San Jose, Cal., as fellow in musical composition on the Fred-

Rosamond Bradley are here from Boston | Among the fourteen who competed for the fellowship were several well known Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Bache Pratt and American composers. The jury was composed of Messrs. Walter Spalding, ces G. Landon, Mrs. Robert Olyphant, and Mrs. George H. Clapp of New York, were among those registering at the bath house.

Arriving to-day from Philadelphia were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Hazlett and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carr. The honeymoon colony at the Homestead has been increased by the arrival from Cleveland of Mr. and Mrs. William ane not to exceed $2,000.

been increased by the arrival from Cleveland of Mr. and Mrs. William Ashman, who are to remain a fortnight. Mr. and Mrs. George R. Read, who are here from New York, drove around McGuffins Mountain and later had luncheon at one of the mountain inns of the region.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fahys Cook, of New York rode to the top of Delafield mountain and later had luncheon at Boone cabin. Also riding along various trails were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Victor and Miss Symphoresa Bristed.

Mrs. John Clinton Gray of Newport, motored through the Warm Springs gap and returned for tea at the Casino.

Mrs. De Lancey Astor Kane and Mrs. Robert W. de Forest, were among those from New York driving through Dunns Gap.

The Rey. James Avery Norris and

EVENTS FOR CHARITY.

Articles Made by Disabled War Veterans on Sale.

Many farsighted persons started their hristmas shopping yesterday at a sale on the fifth floor of Lord & Taylor's store of articles made by disabled war veterans at Tae Dugout. Those who have not tried this novel source of bargains will have the opportunity of doing so during the remainder of this week.

tunity of doing so during the remainder of this week.

The sale is under the auspices of the Lest Wo Forget Committee, the membership in which includes Mmes. Arthur Terry, Francis Rogers, J. West Roosevelt, Perry Trafford and Henry Parish, Miss Frances Hoppin, Mrs. Myron Schaffer, Mrs. Franklin Lawrence, the Misses White, Mrs. Richards Taylor, Mrs. Stanley Haskins, Miss Maude Bowers, Mrs. William A. Barstow, Mrs. Douglas Robinson and Mrs. Theodore Banks. The hospitals where these disabled soldiers are working are the Polyabled soldiers are working are the Poly abled soldiers are working are the Poly-clinic, Fox Hills, Reconstruction, Brook-lyn Naval, U. S. Marine, Seton, Otts-ville and The Dugout, at 150 East Sixty-first street. The proceeds of the sale go directly to the soldiers who make them. The Red Cross furnishes the material from which the things are made.

maderial from which the things are made.

Mrs. James Lenox Banks, Jr., will give a tea this afternoon at her residence, life East Sixty-third street, to the members of the junior committee of the Inwood House of Rest to perfect plans for a concert for the institution at Carnegie Hall on the evening of Dec. lo. The committee, of which Mrs. Thomas Ellis Brown, Jr., is chairman, includes Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, Mrs. James Lenox Banks, Jr., Miss Carlotta Have-

Madison Square South, New York THE SPAULDING COLLECTION of Rare and Valuable JAPANESE COLOR PRINTS

At the American Art Galleries

ON FREE VIEW FROM 9 A. M. TO 4 P. M. *, "Hustrated descriptive catalogue, prepared by FREDERICK W. GOOKIN, mailed ou receipt of One Bollar.

ALSO ON FREE VIEW 9 A. M. TO 6 P. M.

An Extraordinary Collection of ANCIENT ARMS AND ARMOR AUTHENTIC SPECIMENS AND IN NEARLY ALL INSTANCES EUROPEAN

CRITICALLY SELECTED FROM THE COLLECTIONS OF THREE DISCRIMINATING AMERICAN COLLECTORS Forming the Most Important Collection of Authenticated Specimens of Ancient Arms and Armor ever offered at Public Sale in This Country." "A Veritable Museum of Rare Specimens"

TO BE SOLD ON FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AFTERNOONS OF THIS WEEK AT 2:30

*, *Catalogued by Dr. RASHFORD DEAN, Illustrated copies of which will be mailed on receipt of Seventy-five Cents.

The Sales will be conducted by MR. THOMAS E. KIRBY

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK.

Mrs. George A. Pope of Burlingame, al., is stopping at the Plaza.

Mrs. Robert Winthrop has closed her house in Lenox and returned to New York. Mr. Newbold LeRoy Edgar, who had been passing several months in Europe, has returned to New York.

Mrs. Henry M. Alexander has re-turned to New York from Tuxedo Park

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Hhinelander 2d. 850 Park avenue, have gone to Lake wood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin M. Post, Jr. who were visiting Mrs. Post's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Coadby Loew, in Roslyn, L. I., have returned to New

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac H. Clothier of Philadelphia are at the Ritz-Cariton for the Horse Show, in which Mr. Clothier has several entries.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Aster enter-tained fifty friends at a dinner and dance last night in their home, 840 Fifth avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rhinelander 2d have gone to Lakewood, N. J., to pass Prince Bibesco, Rumanian Minister in Washington and Princess Bibesco, who have been at the Ritz-Carlton since the Princess returned from Europe, left for Washington yesterday.

Mrs. Wickliffe Rose will give a lunch-eon party for her debutante daughter. Miss Dorothy Rose, on December 7 in the Ritz-Carkon, Miss Rose is one of the new members of the Junior League.

Miss Elizabeth Warren Macy of 115 East Eighty-second street will entertain at luncheon to-day in her home for Miss Dorothy Gardiner and Miss Katherine Adams.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Van Nest Gambrill upon the birth of a daughter last Thursday in their home, 144 East Sixty-fifth street. The child is a grand-daughter of Mrs. Richard Gambrill and of Mr. and Mrs. C. Ledyard Blair.

WASHINGTON.

The French Ambassador, Jules J. Jus serand will leave Washington for New York Saturday to attend the dinner of the Alliance Française that evening, at which Marshal Foch also will be a

Secretary of the Navy Denby was the guest of honor at a dinner given last evening by Admiral Kato of the Japan-ese conference delegation.

In speaking of her Mrs. Belmont said:
"We have worked

The Peruvian Ambassador, Senor Don Federico A. Pezet, is in New York for a brief visit.

Lady Geddes will entertain the Ameri-can and British delegates to the arms Mrs. Hokan Steffanson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., will leave Washington for New York this week for a short visit.

It may be reason hist. It that the work to institute intensive can will these wrongs are righted."

Mr. Harold Wilson Brooks

The Right Hon. Arthur J. Baifour was the guest in whose honor Price Toku-gawa of the Japanese delegation enter-tained at dinner on Monday night. The British Ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes, and the Japanese Ambassador, de Riano, entertained at dinner iast night. Among their guests were Ad-miral Lord Beatty and Lady Beatty. Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons, who are visiting at the embassy.

BACHELOR DANCES AGAIN.

It has been decided to revive the Bachelors, a series of dances that have been held in the Delia Robbia room of the Vanderbilt for several winters and the first of the series will be held on the night of November 25. The proceeds will be devoted to disabled American soldlers and other local charities, The committee will include Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. The committee will include Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. James A. Burden, Mrs. Though the devoted to disabled American soldlers and other local charities, tapestries and paintings from the collections of Count Kamenoff, late of Ridgewood, and a member of the Ridgewood and a member of the Ridgewood, and a member of the Ridgewood and a member of th

SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. William F. Sheehan, Miss Cornella Vanderbilt, Miss Lucile Thornton, Mrs. Jorge Andre and Mrs. Dudley Olcott 2d joined friends for luncheon yesterday at Pierre's.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Fish were among those dining at Delmonico's last

In dinner parties at the Biltmore last

AQUITANIA TAKES MANY ABROAD; Louis Martin, One MRS. BELMONT AND HER SON SAIL of 3 Restaurateurs,

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson Brooks, Whose Marriage Surprised Their Friends, Start on Honeymoon.

Vanderbilt. They will go first to Paris. Their stay abroad will be indefinite. In speaking of her political activities

"We have worked very hard in Washington, but there is much more yet to do. You know the Woman's Party is not affiliated with either of the two big political parties. We are going it until these wrongs are righted."

Mr. Harold Wilson Brooks and his bride, who was Mrs. Dorothy Arents Humphreys, started by the big Cunarder for a wedding trip. They will be abroad until next spring and upon their return will go to Southampton, L. I, Their wedding, which took all but a few of their intimate friends by surprise, was an event of Monday in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George Arents, at $20 Fifth avenue.

Cunard Steamship Company: Mr. Alexandre Emery, Mrs. M. Hely-Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kaufman of Pittsburgh, Mr. William Lindsey of Boston and Mr. Rodman Wanamaker, The theatrical field also is represented on board by Sir Alfred Butt, a London music hall manager, and Lary Butt: Mr. Shaun Glenville and his wife, who is known as Miss Dorothy Ward on the known as Miss Dorothy Ward on the Avery Hopworth, American playwright.

Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, head of | Mrs. Steuart Davis, also of the South-brother's bestman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leary of 1663

Fifth avenue, who will go to Rome;

Mrs. Emily Hedden, assistant treasurer in Paris of the American Committee for Devastated France; the Marquis of Herrera, Mrs. George A. Kessler, Baron
Alfred Pontenani, and Sir Harold Stiles are among the 487 first class passen-son Johnston and Lady Johnston, who made the round trip on the Aquitania; Major II. Maitland Kersey, formerly agent for the White Star Line in the big political parties. We are going it agent for the White Star Line in the United States; Lord Victor Paget, Mr. suffrage, where women do not own their own property when married or even their own children. We have these conditions to overcome and will use peaceful persuasion first. If that fails will have to institute intensive campaigns until these wrongs are righted."

Mr. Harold Wilson Brooks and his big political parties. We are going it agent for the White Star Line in the United States; Lord Victor Paget, Mr. Louis Martin oranched out for himself to room. Louis Martin oranched out for himself to the room.

Louis Martin oranched out for himself to the your the form the Delmonico site was given by because the owners of the building decided to tear it down. He opened a place at Broadway and Fortleth street but after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last half of ozen years he had lived in France. But after running it for about a year put the shutters up. For the last ha

ADRIATIC BRINGING HOME MANY AMERICANS Miss Iris Cutting Among Those Body Brought From Lakewood to Fifth Avenue Home.

Leaving England To-day.

and Mr. Rudolph Licheman of Dallas, Tree, and Mr. Prederick France Billia Brown, fr. in characteria, includes mark, a lawyer of this ofly, were married marked by the company of the compa

Furnishings Owned by Count Kamenoff Also Offered.

Antique French and Italian furniture, tapestries and paintings from the collections of Count Kamenoff, late of Petrograd, and of Jane Hading, famous French actress, are on exhibition at Clarke's, 43-44 East Fifty-eighth street, prior to the sale at auction, beginning to-morrow. Among the French furniture, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needless of the composition of the eighteenth century, are several tulipwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are cent Astor, Ars. James A. Burden, Mrs. Howard G. Cushing, Mrs. F. Gray Gris-wold, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Whitney Warren, Mrs. R. Thornton Wilson, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney and Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney American Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney American Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney American Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney American Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney and Mrs. Henry Payne Whitney American Mrs. Henry Payne Whitn

In dinner parties at the Biltmore hast night were Gen. Baron Alphonse Jacques, Mr. and Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, Mr. Lease H. Clothier, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. H. Adams Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. van Riper, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plerrepont H. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Dunham and Mr. John S. Craven were among those giving supper parties in Sherry's Last night.

Last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierrepont H. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Dunham and Mr. John S. Craven were among those giving supper parties in Sherry's last night.

Mr. and Mrs. George Arents have closed their country place in Rye, N. Y. and are at the Ambassador Hotel for the season.

Louis De Wolf of 143 East Thirtyninth street will leave Friday for Lakewood, N. J., to spend a few weeks before sailing for Exypt.

Prof. and Mrs. Frederick P. Gorham of Providence, R. L., and Surgeon-General Hugh S. Cumming of the Public Health Scrvice are at the Hotel Aster.

SERVICES HERE FOR MRS. GOULD TO-DAY

complication of diseases at his home, 126 Madison place, Ridgewood, N. J. Mr. Shumway was the son of Albert Shumway, who was also known in whole-sale millinery circles in this city for Sanatoga, Nov. 15.—Frank J. Nolan, proprietor of the Beverwyck Brewing Company, Albany, owner of the Bever-wyck racing stable and widely known in wyck racing stable and widely known in northern New York, died at his country home here last hight. He was a son of the late Michael M. Nolan, former Mayor of Albany. He owned the noted race-horse Sir John Johnson and other thorse oughbreds which won renown on the running turf.

MRS. SARAH F. JACOBUS.

Mrs. Sarah Frances Jacobus, wife of the late Austin G. Jacobus, brush manufacturer, died yesterday after a short lilness in her home at Verona, N. J.

defeated.

THEODORE G. HOSTER.

Theodore G. Hoster, who for forty years has been with the Scientific American in the capacity of patent attorney, died in the Lenox Hill Hospital Monday night following an operation. He was born sixty-seven years ago in Winnedler, Germany, and came to this country in 1871. His home was in East Ituherford, N. J., where he was a candidate for Mayor in 1893 but was lighted.

Everman, Emily Garthwaite, Eddith K. Hammerstein, Claire in the Capacity of patent attorney, died in the Lenox Hill Hospital Monday inght following an operation. He was born sixty-seven years ago in Winnedler, Germany, and came to this country in 1871. His home was in East Ituherford, N. J., where he was a candidate for Mayor in 1893 but was lighted to the late of t

C. I. Hudson, Broker, Dies in 70th Year Falls Dead Abroad

He and Brothers Entertained Stock Exchange Member for Thousands Here for More Than 25 Years. in Many Corporations.

Louis Martin, for many years famous Stoke Exchange, died here to-day in the Mariborough-Bienheim Hotel of heart diseane in his 70th year.

For six months Mr. Hudson had been here except for a few weeks in summer in an effort to restore his health. Late in New York as a restaurateur, dropped dead to-day on the station platform at

Louis Martin, with his brothers Henri and Jean, enjoyed for more than twenty-five years an extreme popularity with New Yorkers who liked a good dinner amid agreeable and vivacious surroundrings. The brothers arrived here from France in 1885 and a few years later France in 1885 and a few years later and sean, enjoyed for more than twenty-five years an extreme popularity with New Yorkers who liked a good dinner amid agreeable and vivacious surround-ings. The brothers arrived here from France in 1885 and a few years later opened the Cafe Martin at Ninth street and University place, in the building now occupied by the Cafe Lafayette. The building, with its furniture and fittings, remains much the same as when the Martin name was painted over the door, but there was no prohibition in their day.

The quarter of the city which they traced

The quarter of the city which they had chosen for hydrony restaurant in the city could prepare rice or eggs or fowl in more ways than could his chef he would close the place as a forfelt and go to work for the other man. Prices for food and drink were always more than fair.

When Harry K. Thaw selected Madiron Square Garden as the scene for the shooting of Stanford White he dined at Martin's first. The day after the murder every newspaper told how Thaw had oned at one of Martin's tables with his wife and a party of friends, and giared

GEORGE L. CARNEGIE

Nephew of Ironmaster Was

Sufferer From Paralysis. George Lauder Carnegie, nephew o the late Andrew Carnegie, died at 4:30 [LOST—Lady's bag, blue and gold cloth, gate o'clock yesterday afternoon in his apartments in the Plaza Hotel. His death [EPERHARDT, 425 Webster av. L. L. City.] followed an illness that lasted for eight rohowed an liness that lasted for eight years. He suffered from paralysis.

Mr. Carnegie was the husband of Mrs.

Margaret Thaw Carnegie, daughter of Mrs. William Copley Thaw, of Pittsburgh. She was with him when he died.

ture, mostly of the eighteenth century, are several fullpwood commodes, cabinets and writing tables. There are needlework chairs, sofas and screens in petit and gros point and several in rare Point St. Cyr. Refectory tables and chairs and carved chesis are included in the Italian furniture.

LOTOS CLUB HAS MUSICALE.

IN Monologues and Pinnologues Fentures of Entertainment.

Monologues and Pinnologues Fentures of the Lotos Club save attemption.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the Lotos Club save attemption.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the Lotos Club save attemption.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the Lotos Club save attemption.

LOTOS CLUB HAS MUSICALE.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save attemption of the late Mayor.

Members of the Lotos Club save atte Capt. Samuel B. Dobson, 54, who for nany years commanded ships of the money &c.; owner can have same by identifying property. BARNUM, 579 5th av., world. He came to this country twenty years ago and when not at sea made his home at 125 Prospect Place, Brook-lyn. His wife and one son survive.

in Atlantic City

Forty Years and Director

ecial Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERLE. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., NOV. 15.—Charles Hudson of New York, for more than try years a member of the New York and Mrs. Isaac N. Hudson of New York and was born here in 1852. He was of Dutch descent and his paternal an-cestry is interwoven with some of the most striking experiences during the Dutch administration of New York. He door, but there was no prohibition in their day.

The quarter of the city which they had chosen for business was largely French then, and it was with an eye to French tastes and customs that they had got the place and fitted it up. But before long they were a going concern, for people with palates everywhere in the city heard about them and began going their of the place and fitted it up. But before long they were a going concern, for people with palates everywhere in the city heard about them and began going there to dine. Eventually when the brothers moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate brother moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate brother moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate brother moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate brother move the brothers moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate brother three to dine. Eventually when the brothers moved to the building an extensive farm of sixty-two acres in lower Manhattan Island. The estate street in the city church Corporation, whose title to the property was upheld by the courts in 1847. Entirely a self-made man, Mr. Hudson after his graduation from Public School No. 54. He remained with the firm of 2 years old, he had made have been sent on the street of the same of the place as a fixed custom in Martin's because it was the thing to do.

The food, always excellent, ran special self-manhating that excuses would be invented for making him buy more liquor or move. People who knew nothing about dominates a fixed custom in Martin's because it was the thing to do.

The food, always excellent, ran special self-manhating that the could prepare rice of the firm of Smith, and the could mark the property was upheld by the courts in 1841. Entirely a self-made man, Mr. Hudson No. 54. He r wes extended by the admission of George R. Dyer and Percy K. Hudson, and a few years later by H. Kierstede, C. Alan and Hendrik Hudson and James

Mr. Hudson's avocation was the breed-Mr. Hudson's avocation was the breed-ing of fine cattle at Knollwood, his ex-tensive estate in East Norwich, L. I. Nearly forty years ago he became inter-ested in the breeding of registered Jersey cattle and became nationally known as the breeder of more champion and first oned at one of Martin's tables with his the breeder of more champion and first at White, sitting with his son across the room.

Louis Martin oranched out for himself just before the Delmonico site was given up because the owners of the building decided to tear it down. He opened a place at Broadway and Fortleth street.

Diagonal at one of Martin's tables with his breeder of more champion and first the breeder of more champion and first within the breeder of more champion and first prize winning cattle than any other breeder in this country. He was a director of the American Jersey Cattle the was a director for many years of the Trust Company of American director of the Edub. In connection with his business life he was a director of the Fourteenth street and director of the Fourteenth streeth st

LOST AND FOUND.

DIES; ILL EIGHT YEARS

sphew of Ironmaster Was Sufferer From Paralysis.

LOST—At 5th av, between 8th and 28th sta., black slik bag, with beaded rose, containing personal effects; reward. A. & H. VEITH, 411 5th av.

LOST—Sunday morning, a lady's envelope purse of jet and steel beads. Return 301 West 89th st. Phone Riverside 5855; reward offered.

offered.

LOST-Between Branchville and Morristown
N. J., Saturday, November 12, a hat trunk reward. HAWKS, 5 Brook court, Summit
N. J. LOST-Roll of manuscript, yellow paper an medical clippings, Interborough, 33d st. to City Hall or Putnam B. R. T. Suitable reward. Phone Murray Hill 1230.

FOUND Scotch fox terrier; black, 322 W.

MARRIED. COHAN-SCHNECK.—At the Hotel Astor, Tuesday, November 15, Miss Gertrude Schneck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schneck of 789 West End av. New York, was married to Mr. Emanuel M. Cohan.

DIED.

Carnegie, George L.
Lynch, John B., Jr.
Lynch, John B., Jr.
Lynch, John B., Jr.
Morgenstern, Louis
Foreman, Emily
Garthwaite, Edward
Gould, Edith E.
Lynch, John B., Jr.
Morgenstern, Louis
Morgenstern, Louis
Myhaven, Hefena
Myhaven, Hefena
Myhaven, Marry J.
Nordbruch, Menry D.
Lammerstein, Claire Chaire Qui

DIED.

NEGIE -George Lauder Carnegle, Plantel Tuesday, November 15. Funer

GARTHWAITE.—On Tuesday, November 1
1921, Edward B., beloved husband of Figence A. Garthwaite. Funeral services his late residence, 451 7th st., Brookly
N. Y., Thursday evening at 8 clock
Kindly omit flowers. Interment private.

GOULD.—Suddenly, on Sunday, November 13, 1921. at Lakewood, N. J., Edith King don, beloved wife of George J. Gould Funeral private. HAMMERSTEIN-Claire, wife of Arthu-Hammerstein, on November 11, at Reno Nev. Funeral services at the residence of her parents, 225 East North st., Buffalo N. Y., Friday, November 18.

Auspices Actors Fano.

ORTON.—Suddenly, at her residence, the Forest Hills Inn. Porest Hills, L. I., Mary Elizabeth, beloved wife of George W. Horton. Funeral services will be held at the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Lafayette av. and South Oxtord st., Brooklyn, on Thursday, November 17, 1921, at 2:30 P. M. Interment private.

HOSTER.—At Lenox Hill Hospital, N. Y. Theodore G., in his 67th year, belove hurband of Stella Hoster, Funeral ser vices at his late residence, 61 Prospectores, East Rutherford, Thursday Stevenoon at 2 o'clock, Interment private Automobiles will meet train leaving Jersey City, Eric R. R., at 1:15 P. M.

KING.-Elizabeth Reeves, widow of W. King, on November 14, in her 91st

Funeral private.

KINNEY.—Entered into rest on Tuesday.

November 15, 1921, Elizabeth C. Kinney.
beloved wife of Edward C. Kinney of 95
Beech et., Flushing, N. Y., and mother of
Dr. Charles S. Chase and Mrs. Maude C.
Grugory. Funeral services at the First Baptist Church, corner Sanford av. and Union et., Flushing, N. Y., at 1 F. M.
Thursday. November 17, 1921. Train leaves Fenn. Station for Main st., Flushleast 12:22. Interment private. Flease omit flowers.

LANGSFELD.—Leon D., son of Ida and
Jacob Lengsfeld, on November 14. Interment at Philadelphia, Mount Sinai
Cemetery, 2 P. M., Thursday, November 17.

LYNCH.—After a short liness, on Tuesday.

ber 17, LYNCH.—After a short illness, on Tuosday, November 15, John B. Lynch, Jr. Funeral from Church of the Blessed Sacramont, Broadway and Tist st., on Thursday, at 10 o'clock. Relatives, friends and men-bers of Company I, 107th Inf., N. Y. N. G. are invited to attend. Interment pri-vate. vate.

PROENSTERN.—Suddenly, at his home, 133 North Parkway, East Orange, N. J., November 14, 1921, Louis A. Morgenstern, husband of Rae A. and father of Mrs. Harry Fishbiatt, in his 71st year. Funeral from his late residence November 17, at 10:30 A. M. Train leaving Hoboken, D. L. & W. R. R., at 9:30. Interment Cemetry of Congregation Sherey Tefflo.

MYHAVEN.—On November 14, Helt haven, at her home, 234 Centr West. Puneral service at St. Chapel, 16th st. and Stuyesant on Thursday at 2 P. M. Intermen

cace of the family,

ORDERICH—On Monday, November 14,

1921, Henry D. Nordbruch, beloved hishand, the first Anna Nordbruch, in his

Ed year Rate and friends are free

Thursday, November 17, residence of his niece, Mr. Heavy 12,

Meyer, 248 East 31st st., corner Cortelyou road, Flatbush, Auto cortege, New Rochelle papers please copy,

UNN.—Charles F.

Cemetery, Pleasantville, N. Y.

QUINN.—Veterans of the Seventh Regiment,
N. G. N. Y. With aincret regret aunouncement is made of the death on November 13 of Charles F. Quinn (Sixth Company). Williard C. Fisk, President,
REDFIELD.—Suddenly, at Farmingson,
Conn., November 15, Mary E. Redfield, éaughter of the late Luther and Ann E.
Redfield. Notice of funeral hereafter.
SHIEBLER.—On November 14, at the home of her son, Arthur Moore Shiebler, Hannah
Moore, wife of the late George W. Shiebler, Services Wednesday, November 18, 2
P. M., at 1733 East 7th st., Flatbush,
Interment private. Newark papers please Copy.

copy.

SHIIMWAY - Albert, at Ridgewood, N. J.,

Monday, November 14, 1921. Puneral services, Wednesday, evening, November 16, 1921, and the following of the fo Cumpany). Willard C. Fisk, President.
SMITH-Duniop, on November 14, 1921, beloved husband of Evelyn Whitney Smith.
Services at his late residence, at Manonac
Fails, N. Y. at 2 P. M. Thursday, November 17. Interment Harvard, Mass.
Boston papers please copy.
SMITH. Entered into rest, Emdly Jane Buil, beloved wife of the late issae Smith, at her home, 250 Marcy av. Brooklyn, November 15. Notice of funeral hereafter.

vember 15. Notice of Tuneral hereafter.

SCHILMANN-Anna, November 14, in Wilmington, N. C., formerly of East Orange, N. J. Interment in Wilmington.

TERHUNE.—On Sunday, November 13, 1924,
at her residence, 112 Washington st.,
Mount Vernon, N. Y., Maria C. Terhune, age 76 years, beloved wife of Samuel L.

Terhune. Funeral mervices at her late residence on Tuesday evening at 8 oclock.

UNGUIT - Is New York George T. Vineral

WASSERMANN.—Max, beloved husband of Gliela and father of Ludwig and Jo-sephine, at his residence, 20 East 900. Funeral services on Wedneaday, Novem-ber 16, at 10 A. M.

IN MEMORIAM BIJUR.—In loving memory of Moses Bijur, died November 16, 1920. SACKETT In faithful remembrance of States Mend Sackett, who passed into eternal life November 16, 1920.

UNDERTAKERS.

CEMETERIES, &C.

KENSICO Permanent and beautiful Prices of lots moderate

Office-102 Park Aven Tel. Murray Hill 1841. for "Passing of City Com

AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, Manager Madison Sq. South, Entrance 6 E. 23d Street, New York.